

Aut inveniam viam, aut faciam.

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY 26, 1893.

M. F. CONLEY, Publisher

VOL. VIII. NO. 39.

NEWS ITEMS.

It is now believed that the two men who were reported to have been killed in the explosion at the Louisville and Nashville bridge, were not killed, but were merely injured. The explosion was caused by a gas leak from a lamp, and the two men were not killed, but were merely injured. The explosion was caused by a gas leak from a lamp, and the two men were not killed, but were merely injured.

Many deaths from malignant diphtheria are reported at Little Falls, N. D.

Reports of damaging prairie fires ranging over 100,000 acres, have reached St. Paul.

No less than 3,000 persons were driven from their homes in Meadville, Pa., by the high water.

Twelve leading gambling house keepers at New Orleans have been indicted by the grand jury.

A headless child was born to Mrs. Charles Conway, of Paris, Ky. It lived but fifteen minutes.

Seven babies have been found on doorsteps in Lexington, Ky., within the past two months.

Prof. Bushnell, of Leipzig, claims to have discovered a number of manuscripts by Dr. Martin Luther.

Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, shipped $200,000 gold on the steamship Scythia, sailing to Europe, Saturday.

Miss Colgrove, of Indiana, a principal examiner in the United States civil service, resigned. His salary was $2,000 per year.

M. Lardoux, a French journalist, proposes to walk from Paris to Chicago, N. Y., crossing the Bering Straits on the ice.

The president has appointed Capt. Wm. H. Hammer, of the Twentieth Infantry, paymaster in the army, with the rank of major.

At Erie, Pa., the total loss by the flood will reach $750,000, while at Toledo it is said to be nearly as heavy as that of last June.

Postmaster General Russell has appointed John L. Thomas, of Missouri, to be assistant attorney general for the post office department.

The German government has offered Count von Alvensleben the German ambassador at Washington, but the count declined to accept the office.

The German ambassador at Quebec, Thursday evening, finishing his passage in seven days, twenty-two hours and twenty-four minutes.

Chung Tung, of the Chinese companies at San Francisco, says he is waiting instructions from his home company before advising Chinese how to act.

The establishment of the Yonkers Hat Manufacturing Co. was almost entirely destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The loss is estimated at $100,000. About 600 hands are thrown out of employment.

Business men of Mexico are excited over the proposed changes in the currency tariff. The tax of 10 cents per kilogram on chewing and smoking tobacco and snuff is meeting with a great deal of opposition.

Miss Laura Stiles, on the day she was to be wed, abandoned her betrothed husband, Harvey Embury, at Canton, and eloped to Whiting, W. Va., where she married her old sweetheart, Wm. Thomas.

The Press Club League convention at St. Paul Friday elected John A. Coffey president. A resolution was adopted instructing the governing board to establish a fund to build a home for aged and infirm journalists.

William Schreiner, proprietor of the Normal (Ill.) exchange bank, who has suspended last Monday, has been taken to jail, charged with embezzlement. Friends offered to furnish bail, but he would not allow it.

The confession made by a colored freed named Will Barnes, who was arrested on suspicion as one of the thieves operating in the Warren county, Miss., case, was the murder case of Wm. Zell, who was murdered five years ago.

The International Housekeepers decided to join the American Federation. There are 10,000 members, making the Federation the largest labor body of its kind in the world. The next convention will be held in Washington, in 1894.

A steam shovel employed on the Vandalia, near St. Joseph, Ind., Thursday struck a snow-bank five feet deep, buried under about eight feet of sand. The snow had evidently drifted there in the winter and the sand drifted over it since.

At the convention of railroad telegraphers, in session at Toronto, Ont., yesterday, the report of the grand secretary showed the membership to be 30,000, and that there was a substantial gain in the treasury, with a protective fund of $100,000.

A fire accident resulting in a large number of fatalities is reported from Glasgow, Scotland. The boiler of a locomotive exploded, killing five persons and injuring a number of others so seriously that eight of them are in a dying condition.

Evon Tschick, one of the secretaries of the Russian embassy, has married a Russian noblewoman, the divorced wife of the late grand duke Louis IV, of Russia. Baron Tschick, it is said, has been transferred to the Russian embassy at Lisbon.

Rear Admiral Gherardi is going to the Brooklyn navy yard. He will take command and relieve Commodore Erben, who will be sent to a European station. The navy yard at this port has been the headquarters of the admiral's choice of shore command.

The drought continues in the Campania and in southern Italy generally. The damage of this drought will be very heavy. Most of the crops are ruined, as no rain has fallen for over four months. The depression in this capital is very great.

Rufus Hatch in his will warns his boys against drinking and gambling. He also prefers they should get a business education in preference to a college course.

James Sandusky, once a wealthy farmer near Brookburg, Ind., committed suicide by taking strychnine. He was 70 years old, and both his parents had been centenarians.

The earl and countess of Aberdeen, who came to this country to attend the opening of the World's Fair, returned to New York Friday night, and will sail for home Saturday on the steamer Arcturion.

According to authentic information, the sentences passed upon DeLoe, DeLoe, and Effert will be quashed by the Court of Cassation in the middle of June 8, on account of irregularities in the procedure. DeLoe will be set at liberty on the rendering of the new judgment.

In the United States circuit court at New York Judge Lumsden has granted a decree for $1,000,000 in favor of the Central Trust Co. against the City Railway Improvement Co. The suit was brought for the foreclosure of a mortgage of $1,000,000 held by the trust company. The mortgage was made in 1880, and on the first day of the year 1893.

WILL TRY AGAIN.

Three Great British Warships Coming to New York—England Still Not Gains Prestige in America Since the War.

New York, May 25.—Russia proposed to intercept England at the mouth of New York. This statement was made by an officer of high rank in the Russian fleet, and in support of his declaration he pointed to the list of ironclad warships which will leave Cronstadt for New York in the course of the next few days.

Three ships, the Nikolai I., Admiral Nachimov, and Poyasnyy Anzarskiy, will leave Cronstadt for New York in the course of the next few days. These ships are sufficiently powerful to have won the entire Baltic. The Nikolai I. is a dreadnaught, a little larger than the Russian dreadnaughts, and is armed with the latest and most powerful guns. The Admiral Nachimov is a battleship, and the Poyasnyy Anzarskiy is a cruiser.

The three ships will leave Cronstadt for New York in the course of the next few days. They will arrive in New York in the course of the next few days. They will arrive in New York in the course of the next few days.

A HOLOCAUST.

Mayon Men Burned to Death by Forest Fire.

LAKE CITY, Mich., May 22.—A forest fire destroyed the Mayon men, who were burned to death by a forest fire. The fire was caused by a lightning strike, and it spread rapidly through the forest. The men were caught in the fire, and they were burned to death. The fire was caused by a lightning strike, and it spread rapidly through the forest. The men were caught in the fire, and they were burned to death.

THE NEW YORK.

The Spanish Princess Arrives at the White House.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Spanish princess, who arrived in New York on Saturday, was received at the White House. The princess was accompanied by her husband, the Duke of Alba. They were received by the president and the first lady. The princess was very beautiful, and she was very gracious. She was very popular with the people, and she was very well liked.

THE BLUE ROOM.

All Formalities Were Bypassed—Enthusiasm Seemed to Be Increasing.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Spanish princess, who arrived in New York on Saturday, was received at the White House. The princess was accompanied by her husband, the Duke of Alba. They were received by the president and the first lady. The princess was very beautiful, and she was very gracious. She was very popular with the people, and she was very well liked.

A DARING PLOT.

General Outbreak of Kentucky Curries Plotted—But It Was Discovered in Time and Stopped in the End.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 21.—A desperate plot for a general outbreak of curries in Kentucky was discovered in time and stopped in the end. The plot was discovered by the authorities, and it was stopped before it could be carried out. The plot was very daring, and it was very well planned. It was very dangerous, and it was very serious. It was very well executed, and it was very successful. It was very well organized, and it was very well managed. It was very well controlled, and it was very well supervised. It was very well directed, and it was very well coordinated. It was very well planned, and it was very well executed. It was very well organized, and it was very well managed. It was very well controlled, and it was very well supervised. It was very well directed, and it was very well coordinated.

DO YOU KNOW

That we are the people who sell the Celebrated Douglas Shoes!

It's a fact, and if you want to wear a GOOD, COMFORTABLE, SERVICEABLE Shoe you won't wear any but the DOUGLAS. We will guarantee it to give you satisfaction.

But if the Douglas doesn't suit you, we have a number of different brands that you can make your own selection from. If you will give us a call (and it will be to your own interest to do so) we assure you that you will never leave our establishment without buying a pair of Shoes, and being well pleased with them.

LADIES,

We have the most magnificent stock of DRESS GOODS ever placed on sale in Louisa. It is not the same old line of goods that has been brought to this place for years past, but is of the latest design and is sold at the lowest possible price.

In fact, our line of General Merchandise is complete in every respect, and if you are in search of BARGAINS, rarely offered by Louisa Merchants, you will most assuredly give us a call.

REPORTS & STUNTS.

Dr. Wm. W. chief immigrant inspector for Chicago, and his assistant inspected, last month, 100 trains of 477 cars, with 17,677 people.

A St. Louis pickle factory has ground leased at intervals all the way from St. Louis to Keokuk and hundreds of men employed in raising cucumbers.

The loss on Tremont Temple, in Boston, which was destroyed by fire a short time ago, has been adjusted by the board of arbitrators at $114,000.

A girl, residing in a Lake Michigan town, has recovered $500 damages from a steamboat company for naming a boat after her without asking her permission.

EXES in Finland women have gone in quest of their rights, and with success. They are now employed there as clerks, doctors, dentists, house builders, etc.

A Chicago man has constructed a checker-board in which there are 25,000 separate pieces of wood, glued together with the finest art. It is valued at $1,000.

The total attendance at the World's fair during the first eleven days is nearly 2,000,000 greater than that at the Centennial exposition during the corresponding period.

The Harvard authorities will make use of the legacy of $100,000 left to the university by Katherine Page Perkins to erect a dormitory to be known as the Perkins hall.

A Georgia editor recently bought a Meyer, so that he might run down delinquent subscribers, but the sheriff seized the Meyer, and he is now running down the editor.

The royal member of the British royalty who does not pay postage is the duke of Cambridge, excepted as commander-in-chief. All the others have to pay for their stamps.

The state capital at Albany, N. Y., even in its unfinished state, is the costliest building of modern times. Nine million six hundred thousand dollars have been expended upon it to date.

The most expensive municipal hall in the world and the largest in the United States is the city building of Philadelphia, upon whose yet unfinished tower the largest clock in the world is to be displayed.

Perkins the recent cyclone an old barn on the plantation of Mr. Johnson, near Orlum, Ala., was blown apart, but several hundred bushels of wheat, which were upon the floor remained undisturbed.

The largest gold nugget ever found in Colorado weighed 13 pounds, the largest in the United States weighed 13 pounds and 6 ounces, the largest in the world, 223 pounds and 4 ounces.

The Butler (Mo.) Times says that G. A. Todd has a new design for a ball. The balls are made of water pipes. When one is cut into the water shoots out and the pressure being relieved, gives the alarm in the ball's office.

Miss Ida Lane New of Vienna has discovered a new use for cigar ribbons. She made a gown of 3,000 narrow yellow ribbons, with stripes of plain black dress goods. This gorgeous robe has been greatly admired at a soiree in Vienna.